

Shamelessly Successful Self-Promotion

Sell Yourself and Your Personal Brand Effectively

Presentation Description:

Are you holding yourself back from the success you deserve by not promoting and selling yourself effectively? If so, you may not feel comfortable with the concept of self-promotion, fear rejection or lack the confidence to develop the belief system and habits that build high levels of success.

Discover how to remove limiting beliefs and obstacles that may be stopping you from reaching your peak potential. Maximize your opportunities and build shameless success with effective self-promotional skills. Learn how professional self-promotion offers service to others and manifests unstoppable success. Discover the three traits that highly successful people possess and learn how to implement them into your business plan.

Learn how to develop a powerful personal brand that allows others to instantly connect with you and your organization. Build word-of-mouth advertising with shameless fans.

This presentation is based upon Debbie's best-selling book Confessions of Shameless Self Promoters

Learn How To:

- Promote yourself more effectively and create unlimited success opportunities
- Move away from negative beliefs and programming that may be holding you back
- Maximize your success potential with the help of powerful business alliances
- Market yourself and your organization with innovative strategies
- Build a powerful brand that gets others talking about you and your organization
